THE IACC

Profile

The Italy-America Chamber of Commerce (IACC) Southeast is an association of businesses and professional firms devoted to fostering trade between Italy and the United States. The IACC is officially recognized by the Italian Government.

Since its inception in 1991, the Chamber has been expanding continuously, in proportion to the growth of the Italian business community in the Southeast. Currently, the Chamber boasts more than 250 corporate members. Our organization is part of the Assocamerestero network, an international association of 80 Italian chambers from 54 countries.

Mission

The Italy-America Chamber of Commerce Southeast works in close collaboration with the Consulate General of Italy in Miami to foster the development of trade between and access to the Italian and US markets.

Additionally, the Chamber supports and is involved in the organization of various scientific, cultural, economic and social events, which contribute to educational, civic, and cultural conditions in the region while promoting the public image of Italy, its people, and its industries.

Why join us?

Members of the Chamber enjoy a variety of membership benefits:

- Multiply your networking opportunities through events and workshops
- Receive exposure in our media tools
- Reach out to a selected target of entrepreneurs and managers
- Enhance the credibility of your company through an affiliation to a prestigious bi-national organization that benefits from established collaborative relationships with US and Italian public entities
